Two Guards Battle With the Desperate Florida Outlaws,

And Are Timely Reinforced By Armed Citizens-A Brace of the Robbers Killed, One Wounded, While a Fourth Takes to the Swamps.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 26 .- The vow of Marshal Preston, of Orlando, that the train robbers would be caught and after days and nights of never-ceasa prisoner severely wounded and the third is in the swamps west and tireless sheriffs and deputies, with and an investigation will be held. no possible chance of escape.

City Marshal Preston has been on the trail of the gang since Sunday, and at Mrs. Harding Defies an Entire City and times he is confident he has been close

At noon Wednesday word came announcing that Buffalo Bluff, five miles K. W. railway crosses St. John river, the gang had made its appearance. A special engine, conveying Sheriff Shelly and posse, was soon en route to the scene. At noon George Wurtz and T. H. Wigg, guards placed at the said bridge, saw three men coming from the south on the railroad track.

As the first man passed three feet "Hands up!" and the first man obeyed. The second and third, however, drew their revolvers and began firing, one bullet grazing Wigg. Wurtz fired his shotgun, loaded with buckshot, and Williams fell.

Wurtz leaped to the little house on the bridge for his revolver and the man in advance ran toward Palatka. The other man ran backward and was shot in the leg by Wurtz. An engine load of young men, among them was Dr. of the express company, now arrived on

The big robber had taken to the swamp, with the crowd in hot pursuit. Suddenly a ball ripped through Dr. Morgan's vest, and he realized that the big bandit was near, and instant and vigorous work would be required to save his own life. He espied the robber behind a fallen tree, and, drawing his shotgun, fired. The charge of buckshot riddled the body of the herculean outlaw, and, with a groan, he fell over dead. The bodies were deposited on the bridge and afterward brought to the city on a freight train.

The big bandit while lying behind the tree, observing the approach of the posse, realized that his end was near, and pulling a map from his pocket he wrote on its back the following missive to his mother:

'Dear Mother:- The time has come that you and I shall part, and I hope you will not grieve after me, for I have

"I would write more, but I have not time. Kiss children for me and tell them to do better than I have done and qualified, being a resident of another they will live longer than I have. Farewell, dear mother. Send this to Susan Bidgood, Arabi, Dooley county, Ga I never expect to give up, and I ask you to send me home at Arabi, Ga. So with this I close forever. Please send my body to Arabi, Ga." On his person was found a piece of bacon, and in Williams' clothes was a cloth hat which they had taken from a fisherman Tuesday night.

"Black Diamond" denied having hailed the train Saturday morning. On his person was found a J. T. & K. W. pencil and five cents in money.

A posse with hounds are pursuing the other men. A special train has just left bearing a number of citizens who go to assist in the search, and intelligence of the capture of the rest of the gang is expected at any moment.

Elliott's Stray Bullet.

COLUMBUS, O., May 26.-John H. Reese, one of the wounded victims of the Elliott-Osborn tragedy, a year ago, was awarded $3,000 damages against Elliott Wednesday. Reese was struck in the leg by a stray bullet and permanently crippled. Elliott made no defense. The Elliotts have no property left out of the financial wreck of their fortunes which followed the tragedy. and Reese's only hope to recover the damages is that Elliott may be pardoned and then accumulate enough money to satisfy the judgment.

SCHOOL CHILDREN AND G. A. R. At the October Celebration the Old Sol-diers Will Act as Escort.

ALBANY, N.Y., May 26.-Gen. Palmer, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., is earnestly co-operating with the executive committee of the National Columbian public school celebration, October 12, which aims to impress upon 13,000,-650 pupils a lesson in patriotism. In the following letter Gen. Palmer, through Adjt.-Gen. Phisterer, urges the half million veterans under his command to assist in celebrating the fourth centennial of America's discovery. "I am directed by the commander-in-chief to inform you that it is the intention to celebrate discovery day, October 12, in the public schools of the United States by patriotic exercises, and the G. A. R. is asked to make common cause with the schools by acting as escort to them in parades and at the morning hour, when the scholars raise and salute the flag, that a detail of comrades be present to assist. It is deemed that this co-operation can best be secured through orders emanating from the department commanders. Francis Bellamy, chairman of the Executive committee will soon communicate with you upon this subject, explaining the design and conferring as to the surest manner of securing success. As this promises to be a grand lesson to patriotism, the commander-in-chief desires that each department commander will render all the assistance possible."
